

Woodwind Competiton Judge:
Shelley Collins, DMA
Professor of Flute & Music History
Delta State University

Dr. Shelley Collins is Professor of Flute and Music History at Delta State University. She has served as Secretary of the National Flute Association and as President of the Mid-South, Seattle, and Colorado flute associations. A native of Montana, she received the DMA in Flute Performance and Pedagogy from the University of Colorado-Boulder and a MM in Flute Performance from Arizona State University. www.shelleycollins.com.

Piano Competition Judge:
Dipendra Sunam, DMA
Assistant Professor of Piano
University of Arkansas at Monticello

“Dipendra Sunam is an assistant professor of piano at the University of Arkansas at Monticello. Prior to joining UAM, he served as a piano faculty at Southern Arkansas University. He holds degrees from Berea College (BM), Northern Arizona University (MM), and West Virginia University (DMA). His teachers include Mell Carey, Gert Wegner, Robert Lewis, Frank Scott, Jura Margulis and Peter Amstutz. A passionate teacher, one of Dr. Sunam’s pre-college students performed the piano at Carnegie Hall, NYC after winning an international music competition.”

